PART OF THE PLUNDER RECOVERED

Money Stolen by Northern Pacific Train Robbers Found on a Prairie. The night of June 7 last, says a Minne apolis dispatch, a Northern Pacific train was boarded near New Salem, N. D., by two masked men, who terrorized the passengers and got away with several pouches of registered mail matter. One of the robbers was afterward captured by a Sheriff's sack, and about $100 in money. Bel oving that part of the money, at least had been concealed by the captured robber or rather thrown away during his short flight after discovery, Post Inspector Watkins left this city last Friday morning and, taking one assistant with him, Sunday morning last reached the spot on the bank of the stream where they got their man. Recent rains had caused a heavy growth of grass and the wind had been sweeping over the place since June 10. But after a day's search over a space of about four acres the shrewdness of the inspecwas rewarded by finding, in torn bits and ragged pieces, a large amount of currency. There were found numerous $10's and $20's more or less mutilased, and one till of $1,000. On the prairie the grass was knee desp. The whole bundle had been dropped in one place, and in the robber's haste had not been accurely hid. Coyotes or gophers had torn and separated the money, and the winds had scattered it. The amount resovered by the inspector was not disclosed, but it runs into the thousands.

OVER TWO HUNDRED LOST. An Excursion Steamer Struck by the Storm and Instantly Sunk. A cyclone or hurrican struck the little mity of Lake City, located on Lake Pepin, about seventy miles below St. Paul, and a large number of people were killed by the sinking of a steamer. The steamer Sea Wing was coming up the lake about 9 o'clock at night, and when opposite the city the storm struck it fairly and sont it to the bottom. There were on board some 350 people from Diamond Bluff, and about fifty more were on a barge which was in tow. The loss of life runs over two hundred at the lowest.

TRADE AND THE WEATHER

Effect of the Hot Wave on Various Lines Special telegrams to Bradstreet's indicate that general trade throughout the country has still further felt the restraining influence of the midsummer season.

ence of the midsummer season.

The severity of the hot weather in Missouri and Nebraska has resulted in a drought. Early showers, it is thought, may recover some of the loss to crops from drought in Nebraska. One effect of the extrume heat west has been an advance in the prices of canned goods. There is no improvement in from or steel prices or demand, contrary to expectations and predictions. At some points, notably west, prices of from tend lower. Anthracite coal is from and in fair demand. The outlook is for a further advance in price. The July dry goods trade opened quietly, that has improved this week both with agents and jobbers, owing to enlarged demand for fail dress goods at first and second hands. The late hot wave quickened the reasorting demand for wash dress fabries from jobbers. Haw wool is very dull on reduced demand from manufacturers and proposed tariff changes; cotton was depressed, but closed steady, and but little below has week, uncertainty about August delivery soarly offsetting early unfavorable Liverpois ables. New crop is slightly weaker on good rop advices. Business failures number 134 in this thirde States this week, against 102 last week, and 218 this week last year. Canada hat 2 this week, against 102 last week, The total number of failures in the United States from Jan. 1 to date in 5,702, against 0,255 in a like portion of 1889.

An old farmer and hunter on Robinson fork of Buffalo River, Nicholas County, West Virginia, with his nephew, while hunting in the mountain forests a few lays ago, came on the trail of a pack of wolves. The men traced the animals to den in the rocks and cuptured seven roung wolves. The men realized $140 for their capture.

A Reliable Company. No person is better known among the business men of Chicago than is ALONZO WYGANT, who for several years past has control botton expiring company of this city. He has the esteem of every one who has ever mot him, socially or in business. On the lst of July Mr. Wigant severed his connection with the express company, and embarked in a new line of trade. Joining with others, he formed the Avres & Wygant Company and purchased the old and well-known Chicago institu-tion, "Reed's Temple of Music," located at 182 and 184 Wabash avenue, where he w.ll be pleased to meet his frien s, and show them the finest line of piacos, organs, and other musical instruments to te found in the West. Reed's Temple of Music will lose none of its old-time popularity under the management of the Ayres and Wygant Company. All who are inforested in good music should call upon this new company when visiting Chicago. It will be a pleasure to make their acquaintance.

An Appalled Guest.

This happened away in the backwoods of Arkansas. A tourist going over the State on horseback stopped for the night at one of the popular hotels of a certain locality. The hotel happened to be a log and also affair of three rooms and the same number of beds, while the proprietor was the proud parent of nine wild, and woolly looking sons under 12 years of age. After a suppor of "hog and hom'ny," the heat said to one of his boys:

"Come, Billy, get the broom strawa."

Nine broom straws of unequal lengths were produced by Billy. The father hid them in his hand in such a manner that them in his hand in such a manner that only an end of each straw could be seen. Then each boy drew a straw.

"Ha, hal" said the merry parent, jovially; "Bill, you an' Buck an' Lige git the short ones."

"What does that mean?" asked the amused guest, whose look of amusement faded away when his host said:

"Mean? Why, that's a little way we have o' settlin' which three of 'em shall sleep with any gent that happens to stop over night with us. I 'spect you'll find Buck and Bill and Lige mighty lively bedfellers, but don't you be aftered to give 'em a warmin' up with your boot or a bed slat if they git to trainin' too high. Go 'long, boys, an' pile in with this gent, and mind that you behave yourselves."—

Nothing but Water. Nothing but Water.

I sat on a bench in West Grand Circus Park the other day to rest my legs and hear the splash of the big fountain.
There was a chap alongside of me who watched the play of the waters for a long time with great eagerness. Then he got up and walked around the basin to inspect it, and when he finally came back to me he heaved a great sigh of relief and sa'd:

"It's nothing but water, after all."
Some one had probably told him that the fountains were wasting four or five barrels of beer every minute.—Detroit
